

Automation & Protection

Asset Monitoring & Diagnostics

Transformer DGA Services

GE recognizes that customers not only want a great product full of features but also a great experience with the product throughout its life. The M&D service department works directly with customers or through trained partners to ensure that questions are answered and products are supported by a local team close to you.

Services available:

- Product installation & commissioning
- Project management
- Extended warranty
- Maintenance and support contract
- Field repairs
- Shop repairs

Consultancy:

- Site analysis
- DGA results interpretation
- Asset health monitoring
- Laboratory oil analysis

Training courses:

- DGA fundamentals
- Product installation
- Product use
- Product trouble shooting and maintenance

imagination at work

Contact CHESS CONTROLS locally for more details at 705 682 2828